

Swatches

We are pleased to offer a complimentary sample service to architects, designers and trade professionals working in the commercial interiors sector, helping you specify with confidence.

To process your request efficiently and deliver your samples as quickly as possible, we have introduced an automated sample service. Simply complete the form below and select up to four samples from the swatches shown.

All initial sample requests should be submitted through this form rather than by email or telephone. Your selections will be delivered by courier in custom packaging designed to hold and protect four samples only.

Once you have had the opportunity to evaluate Amberlite and its suitability for your project, we will be happy to provide additional samples.

Please note that Amberlite is not a DIY product.

Add another dimension to your design.

At amber-lite.com, we can now offer textured surfaces across our standard translucent panel range — introducing depth, detail and a completely new tactile quality.

Any colour. Any design. Your texture.

From subtle linear finishes to bold bespoke patterns, texture opens up even more possibilities for feature walls, illuminated panels, partitions and decorative surfaces.

If you don't see anything you like we can produce custom designs, get in touch with us to discuss your personal design requirements.
